

Filed for intro on 05/24/95
House Bill _____
By _____

Senate No. SR0027
By Harper

A RESOLUTION to proclaim July 8, 1995, as "Nashville City Jams Day".

WHEREAS, Nashville, Tennessee, is and continues to grow as the recording capital of the United States of America; and

WHEREAS, Nashville is not only the home of country music, but also a major source of beautiful spirituals, fantastic Rhythm and Blues arrangements, singers, heartfelt gospel hymns and good-time Rock N Roll; and

WHEREAS, in an effort to entice the television audiences in cities across the country, a complete and entertaining one hour, weekly program of music all aspects originating from Nashville is appropriate; and

WHEREAS, Nashville is the home of a tremendous number of extremely talented song writers and singers of all forms of music; and

WHEREAS, William E. Stamps, Jr., a native son of Nashville, with an extensive background in music and television, is producing, directing and hosting a weekly one-hour television program that displays the talents behind the ripple-effect of the city's love for music; and

WHEREAS, the program, entitled "Nashville City Jams", shall be recorded and produced by Mr. Stamps, with the help of many fine and talented musicians, songwriters and singers; and

WHEREAS, Marc Durham and the "Nashville House Band", featuring the best musicians from all over the country, have chosen to make Nashville their home; and

WHEREAS, the weekly TV program shall be aired on the pilot or hub TV station, FOX 17, Nashville, beginning July 8, 1995; and

WHEREAS, "Nashville City Jams" is being produced at the "landmark" location of the Union Station Hotel; and

WHEREAS, each week, Mr. Stamps, with the help of his fellow Nashvillians and friends from all corners of the music, political and entertainment arenas shall call attention to charitable organizations and functions; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE NINETY-NINTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, That we hereby proclaim July 8, 1995, as "Nashville City Jams Day" and urge all Tennesseans to join in the celebration of this great day.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy.

A RESOLUTION to proclaim July 8, 1995, as "Nashville City Jams Day".

A RESOLUTION to proclaim July 8, 1995, as "Nashville City Jams Day".

A RESOLUTION to proclaim July 8, 1995, as "Nashville City Jams Day".

A RESOLUTION to proclaim July 8, 1995, as "Nashville City Jams Day".

A RESOLUTION to proclaim July 8, 1995, as "Nashville City Jams Day".